rating

"Urban chic meets Haussmann at this exceptional-value three-star hotel on the Left Bank, smart on a leafy boulevard straddling the 5e and 13e arrondissements. Forty-two cleverly designed rooms are as functional as they are beautiful, and public spaces beg guests to linger over an art magazine or design digest."

Location

In a creamy townhouse with wrought-iron balconies on a wide leafy boulevard. It stands right on the southern fringe of the Latin Quarter on the Rive Gauche, making it a great-value address for exploring Left-Bank Paris. The Natural History Museum, Jardin des Plantes and Institut du Monde Arabe on the banks of the Seine are all within easy walking distance. The hotel is equidistant to metro stations Les Gobelins (line 7) and St-Marcel (line 5), with a direct link (nine stops) to Eurostar hub Gare du Nord.

Style & character

La Demeure marries the timeless elegance of a quintessential 19th-century Haussmann building with contemporary urban chic. 'La demeure' is understood to be a period dwelling in French and this is precisely the spirit of the place. From the casual reception area, arranged very much like a stylish front room, to the inviting lounge, guests are encouraged to feel at home.
